

How we can help with your business in Ohio?

According to the Small Business Administration, Ohio has almost 966,000 small businesses, or 99.6% of all enterprises in the state. Each person should have enough company insurance to safeguard their assets, cash flow, and way of life.

What we offer

- Flexible payment options: To assist you in managing your cash flow, our Ohio Small Business Insurance gives you the choice of making monthly payments without any additional costs.
- Insurance that is specifically suited to your needs: We focus on providing coverage that is specific to your industry's risks.
- Response time for claims: As soon as a covered claim is reported, we will designate a specific claims agent to help you.
- Contract coverage: The majority of conventional contract insurance requirements are satisfied by our insurance coverage.

The industry, size, coverage requirements, and location of a firm are just a few of the variables that affect the price of business insurance in Ohio. The level of risk connected to the work being done is the most important aspect. Businesses that involve operating high off the ground, like roofers and tree trimmers, are regarded as high-risk. Due to their greater visibility, these vocations can expect to earn higher money.

Ohio's regulations for business insurance

All companies with employees in Ohio are required by law to carry workers' compensation insurance. Owners of businesses can choose to self-insure or purchase insurance directly from the state's insurance fund. Unlike most other states, Ohio has special regulations that forbid businesses from getting insurance from private companies.

Ready to buy our small business Insurance?

Although general liability and professional liability insurance are not needed by state law, you should nevertheless think about getting them to safeguard your livelihood from unforeseen incidents. Clients and landlords frequently demand that you have specific business coverages and limits before you start working with them and you can contact us for any insurance needs.