About

Dr. Lucy Belli, ND was born and in raised in Minden, and is excited and committed to serving her hometown with naturopathic care. She holds a degree in Kinesiology from Western University and a doctorate in Naturopathic Medicine from the Canadian College of Naturopathic Medicine. Naturopathic doctors in Ontario are primary health care providers. Dr. Belli treats a range of conditions and ages, and uses evidence based, individualized treatment plans to help her patients attain optimal health and wellbeing. She is able to work adjunctively with conventional healthcare and works to fill in the gaps where conventional treatment may be falling short. Dr. Belli believes in the healing power of nature, and all of her treatments work with the body's natural healing ability

As a Naturopathic Doctor it is my goal to bring you safe, well-rounded and effective integrative health care. I aim to work with the rest of your health care team to deliver you informed, natural health care. I give you practical advice and treatment plans that we design together that fit with your life and meet you where you're at.
